

Jennifer Langdon serves as the Education Director for RealOptions Pregnancy Medical Clinics in San Jose. The education department offers Campus Pregnancy Support Programs on college campuses and delivers RealTalk, a sexual risk avoidance program for students and young adults in Santa Clara County. She has a heart for women facing unplanned pregnancy and loves sharing with youth about true love and healthy relationships. Jennifer's professional experience includes 10+ years as a Program Manager and Business Analyst for high tech companies like 3Com Corporation and Cisco Systems. She lives in Gilroy with her husband and they have 3 children.

Danny Sanchez serves our community as a passionate Youth Violence Prevention Activist and Latino Leadership Advocate. He is the volunteer Lead Chaplain for the City of San Jose Mayor's Gang Prevention Task Force, and Lead Chaplain for Santa Clara County Valley Medical Hospital Peer Intervention Program, Trauma to Triumph. Danny works with families in crisis, dealing with loss and those injured in gang violence. As a San Jose native, and having been formerly involved in the gang lifestyle, Pastor Danny has a heart and urgency to reach youth and their loved ones in the wake of violence. In 2012, Pastor Danny was awarded Champion Of Change in youth violence prevention, by President Barack Obama. A RealOptions volunteer for 7 years prior, Danny joined the RealOptions education team in 2014 designing and implementing RealTalk in bay area schools.