

Cris Coniconde serves as the Education Director for RealOptions Obria Medical Clinics in San Jose. The education department has a College Campus Outreach team and delivers RealTalk, a sexual risk avoidance program for youth, young adults and parents in the Bay Area. She enjoys engaging with youth and encouraging them to make healthy lifestyle choices. Cris was most recently on staff at WestGate Church, and her professional career before that includes 5 years at Hewlett-Packard, as well as other high tech companies. She has two grown children and lives in Sunnyvale with her husband and stepdaughter.

Danny Sanchez serves our community as a passionate Youth Violence Prevention Activist and Latino Leadership Advocate. He is the volunteer Lead Chaplain for the City of San Jose Mayor's Gang Prevention Task Force and Lead Chaplain for Santa Clara County Valley Medical Hospital's Peer Intervention Program, Trauma to Triumph. Danny works with families in crisis who are dealing with loss and those injured in gang violence. As a San Jose native, and having been formerly involved in the gang lifestyle, Pastor Danny has a heart and urgency to reach youth and their loved ones in the wake of violence. In 2012, Pastor Danny was awarded Champion Of Change in youth violence prevention by President Barack Obama.

Jennifer Langdon served as the Education Director for over three years and continues to serve on the education team in a contract role. She has a heart for women facing unplanned pregnancy and loves sharing with youth about true love and healthy relationships. Jennifer's professional experience includes 10+ years as a Business Analyst for 3Com Corporation and Cisco Systems. She lives in Valley Springs with her husband and their youngest child.
